Be it enacted by the Sangguniang Panlalawigan of the Province of Pangasinan, in Regular Session assembled that:

ARTICLE I
GENERAL PROVISIONS

SECTION 1. TITLE. The Province of Pangasinan hereby establishes a local college to be known as the PANGASINAN POLYTECHNIC COLLEGE, to be organized as a corporation under the same name.

SECTION 2. DECLARATION POLICY. The Province of Pangasinan affirms the mandate of the constitution for the State to give priority to education, science and technology, arts, culture, and sports to foster patriotism and nationalism, accelerate social progress, and promote total human liberation and development, thus, it is hereby declared the policy of the Provincial Government of Pangasinan to operate within the framework of national development goals that embodies these ideals, and in so doing, it shall be the policy of the Province of Pangasinan to protect and promote the right of all its people to quality education at all levels and to take appropriate steps to make education accessible to all by establishing, maintaining, and supporting a complete, adequate, and integrated system of education relevant to the needs of the people taking into account local and sectoral needs and conditions, and shall likewise encourage local planning in the development of educational policies and programs.

SECTION 3. DESCRIPTION. The Pangasinan Polytechnic College is a public, non-sectarian, non-partisan technical-vocational, and higher educational institution operating primarily from the subsidy of the Provincial Government of Pangasinan. Its curricular courses offering and other allied and relevant degree programs may be offered upon authorization duly issued by the Technical Education and Skills Development Authority (TESDA), the Commission on Higher Education (CHED), and the Department of Education (DepEd).

SECTION 4. MANDATE. The College shall primarily provide higher technological and professional instruction and training in the fields of agriculture, agribusiness management, community development and welfare, culture and arts, nontraditional courses, and other relevant fields of study. It shall also undertake research, extension services, and production activities in support of the development of the Province of Pangasinan, and provide progressive leadership in its areas of specialization. PPC shall serve as the hub of the education ecosystem in the Province of Pangasinan.

SECTION 5. PURPOSES AND OBJECTIVES. The College shall have the following purposes and objectives:

- (a) To fully develop the Pangasinenses' intellect and explore their manpower potentials by providing them access and equitable opportunities to post-secondary, college and technical-vocational education with relevant and responsive academic and technology driven programs for all deprived and

SECTION 6. NAME OF INSTITUTION. The official name of the college is PANGASINAN POLYTECHNIC COLLEGE.

SECTION 7. SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY. The college is committed to serve the people of Pangasinan, the Filipino nation, and humanity. While it carries out the obligation to pursue the goals and objectives, it must relate its activities to the needs of the Filipino people and their aspirations for social progress and transformation. The college shall provide venues for student volunteerism.

SECTION 8. ACADEMIC FREEDOM. The College shall enjoy academic freedom pursuant to Section 5 paragraph 2, of Article XIV of the Philippine Constitution.

SECTION 9. ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE. The Pangasinan Polytechnic College has the responsibility to enhance and maintain high academic standards in the performance of its functions in the fields of instruction, research and extension, and public service.

SECTION 10. EMBLEM AND SEAL. The College shall adopt its own emblem, color, and seal that portray the uniqueness, identity, dignity, and values of the institution.

SECTION 11. DEFINITION OF TERMS. As used in this Ordinance, the terms enumerated below shall have the following meaning:

- (a) "College" refers to a public higher education institution established by a local government unit through an enabling ordinance, and financially supported by the Province of Pangasinan, offering academic programs and usually pre-professional training leading to a bachelor's degree.
- (b) "Ordinance" refers to the enabling act of the Sangguniang Panlalawigan that created the college and serves as the charter of the said local college.
- (c) "Polytechnic" refers to an institution of higher education that focuses on applied learning and offers courses in many subjects, especially technical-vocational subjects. Also known as experiential learning, it combines the in-depth study found at universities with practical, technology-based skills training.
- (c) "Degree Program" refers to a collection of all courses in a discipline or a field of study leading to an undergraduate degree, and may also be referred to as an academic program.
- (d) "Non-degree Program" refers to a post-secondary program below the bachelor's degree.
- (e) "Local Government Unit" or "LGU" refers to the Provincial Government of Pangasinan that created or established the local college.

SECTION 22. VACANCY. In case of vacancy in the Governing Board, except for the President of the College, such vacancy shall be filled in the same manner as provided for the predecessor, and such appointee shall hold office for the unexpired portion of the term.

SECTION 23. SUSPENSION AND REMOVAL. A member of the GB may be suspended or removed from office upon a majority vote (50% + 1) of the GB members, with the consent of the Governor, for the following causes:

- a) Incapacity;
- b) Incompetence;
- c) Dishonesty;
- d) Conviction of a crime involving moral turpitude;
- e) Any act detrimental to the interest and welfare of the Pangasinan Polytechnic College.

SECTION 24. CHAIRMAN AND PRESIDING OFFICER. The Provincial Governor as Chairman of the Governing Board is the highest authority in the College and shall preside over regular meetings and/or special meetings thereof. In his/her absence, the Vice Chairman shall preside.

In case the Provincial Governor, as Chairman of the Governing Board, will not be available for a meeting of the Governing Board, he/she may designate a member of his staff to represent him/her in the meeting thereby completing a quorum.

The Provincial Governor's representative so designated shall not preside over the regular meeting or special session of the Governing Board but shall have all rights and responsibilities of a member in participating in the deliberation without authority to vote thereof.

CURRICULAR OFFERINGS

SECTION 59. CURRICULAR OFFERINGS. The College shall offer degree and non-degree programs in agri-fisheries, business, arts, culture, community development and welfare, and technical-vocational clusters and other related fields, after conducting feasibility studies, due consultation with the CHED, TESDA, and DepEd. The President shall take the lead in the formulation of curriculum development and program compliance.

ARTICLE XIII
COMMUNITY CAMPUSES

SECTION 60. COMMUNITY CAMPUSES. The College shall expand and open community campuses in municipalities with larger populations and bring educational and training opportunities closer to the clientele, provided that for its initial years of operation, the College shall utilize the Youth and Development Center (YDC) located inside the Narciso Ramos Sports and Civic Center in Lingayen, as its campus.

SECTION 61. FACILITIES AND PROGRAMS. The Community Campus shall have educational facilities such as buildings, classrooms and laboratories and may offer the same fields of study in the main campus.

ARTICLE XIV
CENTER FOR LIFELONG LEARNING (CeLL)

SECTION 62. ESTABLISHMENT OF THE PPC CENTER FOR LIFELONG LEARNING (CeLL). The College shall operate a Center for Lifelong Learning (CeLL) which will offer TESDA-accredited courses, micro-credentials, and other short courses that provide lifelong learning and education.

SECTION 63. TESDA PROGRAM. The College will establish a TESDA Program under the Center for Lifelong Learning (CeLL). The primary goal of the program is to produce highly skilled and competent workforce from the underprivileged and marginalized sector of the Province of Pangasinan in order to prepare them for gainful employment, entrepreneurship, and improve their quality of life through increased economic productivity and income potential. The training center also aims to support registered private training institutions by rendering support services through offering in-demand technical-vocational courses and skills training needed for hard to fill jobs in the local and international labor market.

SECTION 65. FACILITIES AND VENUES. The training facility for the initial Technical-Vocational courses shall be designated at the CeLL Building 1 (located within the Narciso Ramos Sports Complex and Civic Center Compound, Lingayen, Pangasinan). Moreover, the subsequent courses are proposed to be designated in buildings and facilities listed below:

1. CeLL Building 2 (Automotive Building)
2. Motorpool Compound
3. Back of TESDA Accredited Competency Center
4. Provincial Vehicle Depot located in Brgy. Sabangan, Brgy. Malimpuec, and Brgy. Capandanan
5. OPAG Satellite Office in Alaminos City
6. Laoac Dairy Farm

The CeLL, and its programs, may utilize/use other facilities and venues which are owned by the Provincial Government of Pangasinan, as deemed necessary.

SECTION 66. MICROCREDENTIALS AND SHORT COURSES. The College, through the Center for Lifelong Learning (CeLL), will offer microcredentials and other short courses that would develop and enhance specific skills or knowledge in a focused area such as business, governance, management, technology, arts and culture, agriculture, engineering, and communication, among others. These compact learning modules are typically offered online and cater to professionals seeking to upskill or stay current in rapidly evolving industries. With a shorter time commitment compared to traditional degree programs, microcredentials provide a flexible and targeted approach to continuous learning. The College, through the Governing Board and in consultation with relevant industries, will determine the microcredentials and short courses to be offered by the PPC.

SECTION 67. FUNDING THE CeLL. The PPC Center for Lifelong Learning may be funded by the Local Government Unit and may be funded by the Technical Education and Skills Development Authority (TESDA) through allocation of scholarships. It may also draw funds from the Provincial Government as permitted by the Local Government Code and other guidelines released by agencies concerned.

SECTION 68. COLLECTION OF FEES. The PPC may collect tuition, training, and other fees, as approved by the Governing Board, and subject to existing government rules and regulations.

ARTICLE XV
FUNDING

SECTION 69. OPERATIONAL FUNDS. Initial expenses for the operation of the College shall be sourced from the General Fund of CY 2023 under existing Appropriation Ordinance No. 6-2022, subject to usual accounting and auditing procedures. Thereafter, the Provincial Government of Pangasinan shall continuously appropriate funds to be incorporated in the Provincial Annual Budget for the operation and maintenance of the College, provided, however, that any or all funds allotted and accruing to the College shall be put and kept under its name and account, and provided further, that any surplus or unappropriated amount at the end of each year shall remain with the coffers of the Pangasinan Polytechnic College.

SECTION 70. COLLECTION OF FEES. The PPC may collect tuition and other fees, as approved by the Governing Board, and subject to existing government rules and regulations.

ARTICLE XVI
MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

SECTION 71. TREASURER. The Treasurer of the Provincial Government of Pangasinan shall be ex-officio Treasurer of the College and all accounts and expenses thereof shall be audited by the Commission on Audit (COA) or his/her duly authorized representative.

SECTION 72. ACCOUNTING SYSTEM. The GB shall approve for implementation an accounting system for the College which shall be the basis for the preparation of financial statements, cash receipts, and disbursements, and other financial reports, subject to existing accounting and auditing rules and regulations.

SECTION 73. REPORTS. On or before the 31st day of December of each year, the GB shall file with the Office of the Governor, the Sangguniang Panlalawigan, and the Commission on Higher Education (CHED) a detailed report, setting forth the progress, conditions, and needs of the College.

SECTION 74. BOARD OF VISITORS. The Provincial Vice Governor and the Members of the Sangguniang Panlalawigan of Pangasinan shall constitute the Board of Visitors of the Pangasinan Polytechnic College whose duties and functions are the following:

- a) To attend important college events;
- b) To conduct consultations with college constituents in aid of legislation and in coordination with college officials;
- c) To make reports and recommendations to the Sangguniang Panlalawigan relative to the exercise of its duties and functions.

SECTION 75. SUPERVISION AND REGULATION. CHED and TESDA through their duly authorized representatives, shall exercise reasonable supervision and regulation over the College in accordance with existing laws and rules and regulations.
